Dear Dr. Mei,

Thank you very much for your kind invitation to participate in BIT's 2nd World DNA and Genome Day- 2011, to be held in Dalian on April 25-30, 2011. I shall be very glad to participate in this very important and interesting conference and to deliver a keynote lecture. I am certain that this visit will be highly beneficial for scientific education and international cooperation, and will greatly promote the further improvement of biomedical science and biotechnology in China

Sincerely yours,
